

Dorothy Quintana Senior Arts Program

invites you to join us to celebrate

Hispanic Heritage Celebration

Date/Fecha

Wednesday, October 15, 2014

Time/Hora

11 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Location/Sitio

Dorothy Quintana Community Center
Roberto Clemente Park
101 NW 34th Street
Miami, FL 33127

The Dorothy Quintana Senior Arts Program serves the seniors of the Wynwood community with arts and crafts instruction, special art projects, lectures addressing issues important to seniors, and the opportunity to come together and celebrate special days such as Hispanic Heritage. The project was named after Wynwood's legendary Puerto Rican community activist, Dorothy Quintana, who passed away at the age of 101.

Free Entry – Light Lunch will be served
All attendees must sign the Attendance Sheet

A special thank you to:

The City of Miami Mayor Tomas Regalado, and Commissioner Keon Hardemon (District 5); City of Miami Parks and Recreation Department; Borinquen Medical Centers of Miami-Dade; and Dynamic Community Development Corporation

For more information, please call Roberto Clemente Park at (305) 960-2902

Jose Moran, Park Manager
Maribel Camacho, Art Instructor